MEMORIES

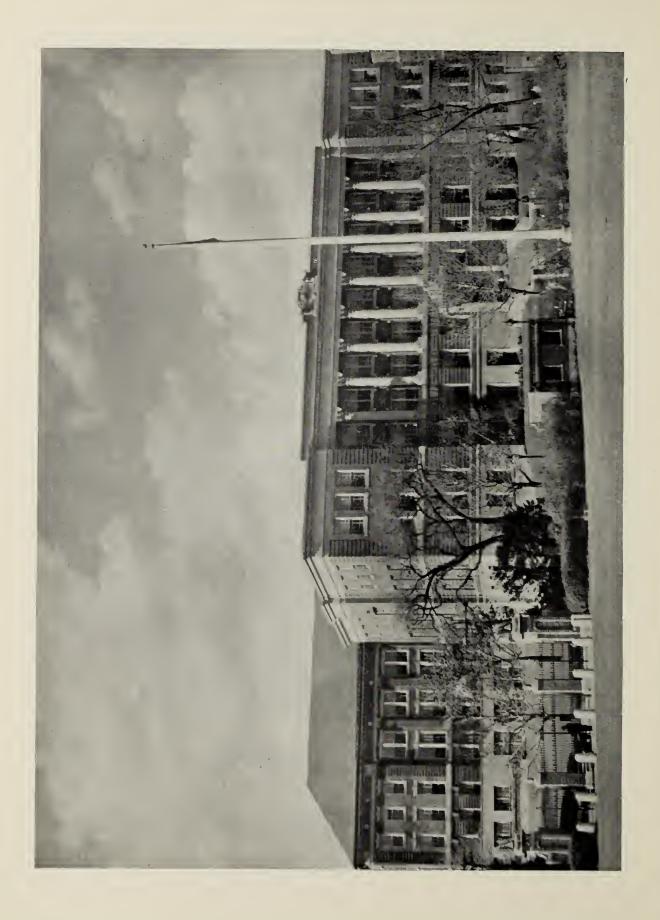

How dear we hold these memories: Old friends, good times, fond dreams; And all too soon they fade away, Long years like days it seems.

With steadfast hope our hearts look up To plans and thoughts held high; And search and wonder till we find His guidance ever nigh.

So unafraid we'll conquer all
The trials of life's long road,
And though we part, our souls are one—
We shared, we cared, we sowed.

These seeds of friendship and of trust, We plant where comrades trod; That love and truth may mold our lives Till we join hands with God.

-RICHARD A. PEARSON

In Memoriam

Samuel Caledonia

Donald James Griswold

As we embark upon our journey of life,

Let us pause to remember two whose courses differed.

May our prayers ever remember their souls

As they rest with their Creator in Heaven.

The Football Story

So very much has been written about the wonderful Brockton High School 1960-1961 football team, that it would be very difficult to write anything original about them for a permanent record in our Yearbook. This team rates among the best that Brockton High School has ever had. The Millettmen were one of the highest scoring teams in the history of the school, and also the highest scoring team in the state this year. They have been undefeated for three years in regular season plays, and most of the senior players have been on the squad for these three years.

This team also had a scholastic record of which it can be proud. Two senior members graduated with all A's and B's, and most of the twenty-three senior players are going to schools of higher education. Next year boys from the 1960-1961 football team may be found on the campuses of Harvard, Annapolis, Bowdoin, University of Colorado, University of Wyoming, University of Massachusetts, Northeastern, Boston College, Holy Cross, and Springfield.

By contacting his home room representative, any member of the student body can have his suggestions brought before the council and discussed at the monthly meeting. The student body is regularly informed of the proceedings of the council. In this manner the student council becomes a clearing house for student ideas. In addition, the council is the presentation group for football and basketball awards.

You have probably seen them gleefully tiptoeing into classes leaving overdue notices, or working diligently behind the big horseshoe-shaped desk, sorting books, stamping and filing cards, and keeping the library neat and orderly.

Among this year's added attractions to our "quiet, studious" library, is the Traveling High School Science Library. This is a group of books on every phase of science from splitting the atom on down. Other attractions have been our projects depicting the various seasons, holidays, and special events. In all, our Library Monitors are a very busy group.

Yearbook Advertising Staff

In the language of the printing business, the Advertising Staff went to bed first because it got up first. In mid-October the group of more than forty enthusiastic seniors organized and formulated a plan of action. The goal was twenty-five pages of advertising. After the Christmas recess the number of pages unexpectedly reached thirty-two. At that time the other production groups were just beginning to gather momentum, but the work of the Advertising Staff was done.

Home Room Representatives

Our class of nearly eight hundred members required a large staff of research workers in each senior home room. Our crew of home room representatives, only partially pictured here, helped us greatly as we checked all the missing information that our dear classmates did not give us!

Pictured with the room representatives is the chief guide of the senior class, Miss B. Elizabeth Elzbut, who helped the yearbook staff by recruiting this group for us.

The Forty and the Four Hundred

Like everything else in our crowded year, more than half of our class has crowded itself into a collection of forty names. Johns and Roberts lead the list of boys' names: twenty-seven of each. Then come twenty-six Richards, seventeen Jameses, fifteen Williams, twelve Thomases, and eleven each of Davids, Michaels, and Josephs. Kenneths total ten; and Donalds and Pauls we have in magic sevens. To complete the roll we have six Peters, Georges, and Geralds; and we have, in lucky fives, Edwards, Vincents, Ronalds, and Stephens.

In our class there are seventy-two girls whose names begin with the letter J. Joyfully we announce our jolly group of twenty Judiths and sixteen Joans, Joannes, and Jo-Anns; eleven Jeans or Jeannes; ten Janes or Jaynes; nine Joyces and, last but not least, six Janets. Patricias number eighteen, and seventeen Carols or Caroles adorn the lists. Then follow sixteen Marys, thirteen Sandras, eleven Kathleens, ten Susans, ten Lindas, and nine Annes or Anns. Next on our list are eight Nancys and six Diannes or Dianes. There are six each of Barbaras, Dorothys, and Elizabeths. To complete the tale of the forty more popular names, these are five Donnas and five Beverlys.

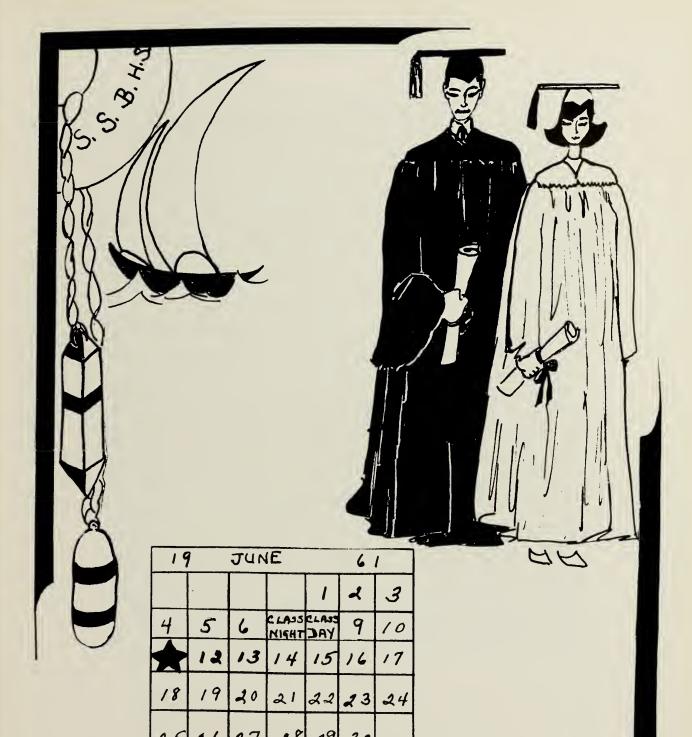

Yearbook Editorial Staff

Standing: Arlene Peterson, Carole Johnson, Robert Podrat, Saranne Stone, Arlene Goldblatt, Richard Colby, Arthur Staif, Judith Pratt, Barbara Dew, Susan Nelson.
Unable to be present: Thomas Sampson.

Here we are enjoying ourselves delightfully—your Yearbook Editorial Staff. Of course, the photographer was allowed in on one of those rare occasions when we were not pulling our hair out or running about excitedly. Producing a yearbook was great fun, but we couldn't have done it without the wonderful Advertising Staff, so turn to their page and give them a salute.

GRADUATION

Class Historians

Left to right: Timothy Audyctis, Mary Lou Boyle, Norman Canelias, Pamela Dodge, Joanne Lirosi.

These files were provided by the library—the setting too; otherwise, most of the material produced by the historians and prophets evolves from thin air. Our fun at class night is the result of many hearty but grueling sessions during which these hard-working students labor to make our class night one that will be recalled with fondness later.

Class Prophets

Lest to right: Stephen Kessman, Lindalee Gardner, David Judge, Jane Ward, Patricia Ek, Thomas Walsh.

A PRAYER

God, though this life is but a span,

Although we know not what we use,

Although we have but might of man,

Give us the heart to fight—and lose.

From compromise and things half done

Keep us, with stern and stubborn pride;

And when, at last, the fight is won,

God, keep us still unsatisfied.

—Judith Dodge

When you graduate it's wonderful to have a telephone job waiting for you. You'll love the friendly new people you meet. And you'll like the excellent salary, the regular increases, the opportunities for advancement and the many additional benefits that make working for the Telephone Company so attractive to so many young people.

Telephone jobs are important ones. We have our own training program which you can enter without any previous job experience.

Why not come and see our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate. Ask the Guidance Counselor at your school to tell you when and where to apply.
